The Garment situation is getting more and more interesting every day. The scarcity of many materials, caused through the government demand for many of the best mills to turn over their entire product for clothing for the soldiers.

We were exceptionally fortunate in buying early and at the old prices, so that now we have one of the largest and best stocks of Ready-Made Goods it has been our pleasure to show, and at prices that are a surprise to the trade. Then you get the first and best wear from them and protect yourself at the time of the season when Furs are of the most value to you. Then, Furs are not like cloths, as hardly two furs are the same, and we try and give each customer the best Fur in the assortment. So, the last of the season, the Furs that are left are the poorest in the line.

We have an exceptionally large line to select from in qualities and values that you surely will appreciate. The real value is in them, and every Fur we guarantee as in former seasons.

Except for the suspension of business in the mercantile district, the closing of the banks and many business offices, Columbus day bore little semblance to a holiday in Barre. With the stores closed, the main thoroughfare took on a Sunday appearance, but at quitting time, at 12 noon, and again at 1 o'clock, hundreds of granite workers bore evidence to the fact that Columbus day is also a working day in the granite industry.

The auction sale at Charlie Dow's in Washington yesterday was well attended. Ten young, small-sized cows that had had no grain this season, and all but two of which were coming in after Jan. 1, sold from $45 to $75.50 per head and averaged $65. One two-year-old heifer, not bred, brought $45; calves sold from $19.75 to $30; two-year-old bull, $58; yoke of two-year-old steers, $197.50; a pair of very poor oxen $130, hay $9 per ton in the barn. C. F. Smith, auctioneer.

GRANITEVILLE

A number of friends surprised George Laird at his home Wednesday evening, the occasion being his 50th birthday anniversary. Those assembled were mostly companions of Mr. Laird, having come from Scotland at the time he did. Refreshments were served the guests by Mrs. Laird and Mrs. Alex. Imah.

40 YEARS MARRIED

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Smith Were Honored Couple.

The grange hall on Trow hill was well filled last Wednesday evening when about 175 people gathered to celebrate the 40th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Smith of east hill. It was evident to all on their arrival at the hall that the affair was a genuine surprise to them.

The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Smith, Victor Smith and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Smith. Mrs. D. C. Roben served as committee of introduction, assisted by several ushers. Miss Helene Hack played wedding marches on the piano while the friends offered congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

The following program was then rendered: Remarks, Rev. B. G. Lipsky; piano solo, Elva Bradbury; vocal solo, Mary Patterson; reading, Dr. Lynde; vocal solo, with violin accompaniment, Mrs. F. R. Northrop; Marjorie Smith; piano solo, Mrs. Edith Carr; recitation, Harold Bancroft; vocal solo, Victor Smith; recitations, Frank Bancroft; original lines for the occasion, Mrs. F. R. Northrop; violin solo, "O Promise Me," Marjorie Smith.

At the close of the program Mrs. D. C. Roben, in behalf of friends, presented Mr. and Mrs. Smith a set of dishes. Both Mr. and Mrs. Smith responded with words of appreciation and thanks. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served and a social hour followed, which gave Mr. and Mrs. Smith an opportunity to greet many friends, both new and old.

Among those attending from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Dwinell of East Calais, Victor Smith of Hanover, and Miss Nellie Tillotson of East Tops-ham.

SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

Brush This Through Faded, Streaked Locks and They Become Dark, Glossy, Beautiful

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and luster to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease—Adv.
